A Birthday Party.

Katie Eubank, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eubank, celebrated her sixth birthday yesterday afternoon, with a party from four till six.

A number of games were played, one of which was trying to eat a bun suspended on a string tied to another string which was stretched between two posts in the yard.

As their hands were held behind them and the wind was shaking the strings the contest grew lively.

Lewis Smith was the first to capture a cake.

Cream and cake were served as refreshments.

Those present were:

Ralph and Ella Pearl Baker, Grace and Louis Smith, Mary Lee and Elaine Rosser, Rosa Lee, Clarabel and G. B. Clark, Mabel D. Cox, Pearl Forrester, Lillian and Florene Tyler, Ernestine and Ruth Rosser, Katie and Lillian Eubank, Edna Jones, Geo. Avary, Harrold Brown, Ralph Johnson, E. J. Ely, Jr., Alfred McLaughlin.

Ennis Sunday School

Editor Signal:

We had a full attendance last Sunday and the interest was good and every one seemed to be glad that they were there.

We are all enthused over our Sunday school, it is the best we have ever had.

When people work and pray for a good Sunday school they will have it and that is what we are doing at Ennis.

Oh, how I do wish that every Sunday school in the county would just write a few short lines about their Sunday schools and let us rejoice with them if they are prospering and if not let every other Sunday school in the County pray for them.

TEACHER

We are expecting another order for a tank made of Toncan metal.—Lowe & Leath.
